

London Air Quality Network Conference – 13th July 2017

Lecture theatre B5, Franklin Wilkins Building, Waterloo Campus, King's College London

Tea and coffee will be served from 9:15 in the first floor restaurant.

9.50 – 10.00 Welcome and introductory remarks
Frank Kelly, King's College London.

The air that we breathe – chaired by Elliot Treharne, Great London Authority

10:00 – 10:30 London's air 2016
Louise Mittal, King's College London.

10:30 – 11:00 A return to winter smog?
Anna Font, King's College London.

11:00 – 11:30 Controlling pollution episodes in Paris
Lionel Guiseppin, Airparif.

11:30 – 12:00 TEA AND COFFEE

Challenges of wood burning in our towns and cities – chaired by

12:00 – 12:30 Wood burning in the UK - a first national investigation
Gary Fuller, King's College London

12:30 – 13:00 The impact of wood burning and climate change policies on air quality
Martin Williams, King's College London

13:00 – 14:00 LUNCH

Celebrating 20 years of the Marylebone Road laboratory – chaired by Gary Fuller, King's College London

14:00 – 14:30 What have we learnt from 20 years at Marylebone Road?
David Green, King's College London.

14:30 – 15:00 How do “supersites” inform our thinking on air pollution science
Sarah Moller, University of York.

Looking forward chaired by Frank Kelly, King's College London

15:00 – 15:30 Is more health research needed to cope with air pollution?
Michal Krzyzanowski, King's College London.

15:30 – 16:15 Discussion led by Frank Kelly.

16:15– 17:30 Drinks reception.

The seminar will take place in the Franklin Wilkins Building, 150 Stamford Street, London, SE1 9NH.

The Franklin Wilkins Building is shown in green (A) on the map below. Registration will be on the ground floor and tea and lunch will be served in the first floor cafe. The seminar itself will take place in lecture theatre B5 on the ground floor.

CPD certificates for this event are available on request.