

London Air Quality Network Seminar

King's College London
24th April 2009

9.50 – 10.00 Welcome and introductory remarks
Gary Fuller

Morning Session

Chair – Dick Derwent, rdscientific and King's College London

Air quality trends – measurements, emissions and future

10.00 – 10:30 Recent trends in air quality in London
Gary Fuller, King's College London.

10.30 - 11:00 Trends in air pollution emissions and projections
Sean Beevers, King's College London.

11:00 – 11:30 UK approach to the time extension notification for the NO₂ limit value
Robert Vaughan, Defra

11:30 – 12:00 Removing the meteorological signal from air pollution concentrations
David Carslaw, University of Leeds

Air pollution and health

12:00 – 12:30 Evaluation of the impact of the Low Emission Zone on East London schoolchildren: (very) early results
Chris Griffiths, Queen Mary's University of London

12.30 – 13.30 LUNCH

Afternoon Session

Chair – Martin Williams, Defra and King's College London

13:30 - 14:00 The ERG research programme
David Green, King's College London

Taking action to improve London's air pollution

14.00 – 14:30 Identifying the effects of local air quality management schemes
Ben Barratt, King's College London

14.30 – 15:00 BREAK – Tea and Coffee will be served

15.00 – 15.30 Air quality and construction
Gloria Esposito, London Borough of Camden

15.30 – 16.00 Low emission zones for London
Simon Birkett, Campaign for Clean Air in London

16.00 – 16.15 Concluding remarks and discussion
Led by Martin Williams and Dick Derwent